(The Role of the Soviet Union in the Surrender of Japan 1945)

Asst .Prof. Dr. Hyder Abdul Reda Hassan

College of Arts / University of Basrah

Abstract

Realized Joseph Stalin — unquestionable-pressing allies desire entering Soviet troops the war against Japan, and wanted to exploit this point specifically to pressure Washington and London to get several regional gains on the one hand, and returns the Tsarist Russian Empire's prestige by restoring all territory from Japanese control. After the Allied response to the demands of Moscow in several international conferences, including conferences in Yalta, Potsdam – Stalin announced on his official entry into the war on the 8th of August 1945. Since then the military balance of power shifted in favour of the allies and forced the Japanese Emperor's surrender announcement impact his allies in the fourteenth of August of the same year, a testament to the importance of the role played by the Soviet forces defeated the Japanese and the placement of a surrender announcement, stating the premise the imperative role of atomic bombs dropped on Nagasaki Hiroshima in ending the war in the far East and overlook the importance of opening new Soviet-led northern front against Japan.
